Earlham College

July 8 - July 21, 2012

A College-Level Summer Program for High School Students Currently in 9th, 10th, & 11th Grades

Earlham Explore•A•College

Explore, Experience, Engage!

At Earlham Explore-A-College you can take a two-week class taught by an Earlham professor and develop college-level study and research skills that you will be able to apply to future classes and careers. You will learn what college professors at one of the nation's leading liberal arts colleges expect and how to manage your time effectively. Just as important, you will be introduced to what college life is like: being away from home, having a roommate, and getting to know students from all over the U.S.A. and from several other countries.

Outside of the classroom you can participate in events that mirror those offered during the academic year: convocation, community service, and a mini international festival. Other activities, such as movies, trips off-campus, informal study breaks, will give you a sense of what college life might be like. Earlham students serve as your teaching assistants and as dorm counselors, giving you an additional opportunity to ask about the many aspects of college life. You will have access to College facilities, including tennis and racquetball courts, an indoor pool, the energy center, and acres of hiking and jogging trails.

Attending Explore-A-College is a risk-free way to prepare yourself for the real thing! In addition, you will earn two semester hours of college credit upon successful completion of the two-week course. For more info. log onto <http://www.earlham.edu/~eac/>

Summer Writing Workshop: June 17-24, 2012
Application Deadline: March 9, 2012

Cost is $1,200

[Download Application Form \[doc\]](#)

Do you love to write? Do you spend hours writing poems and stories, reading voraciously, imagining characters and entire worlds? Do you wish you had more opportunity to learn to write creatively than your high school curriculum allows? If you are looking for the chance to spend time this summer with a community of like-minded young writers from around the country, then the Reynolds Workshop is for you.

The Jonathan R. Reynolds Young Writers Workshop is designed to give beginning poets and writers an opportunity to develop their talents and visions. Our Writers Workshop puts you in touch with the variety a life in writing has to offer.

The eight-day Workshop, this year held from June 17-24, 2012, encourages high school sophomores, juniors, and seniors to explore, discover, and affirm the craft of writing while in residence on the beautiful campus of Denison University in Granville, Ohio.

The Reynolds Workshop establishes a community of respect and sharing in which you will learn what it means to be a writer through daily workshops, group talks, readings, informal encounters with renowned professional writers, one-on-one conferences, and other events.

The National High School Institute, established in 1931, is the nation's oldest and largest university-based summer program for outstanding high school students.

Approximately 850 of the nation's best students will enroll in the Institute's 6 Divisions: Debate, Speech, Journalism, Music, Film & Video Production, and Theatre Arts. Students in the Institute are affectionately called "Cherubs," a tradition that began in the 1930s with the founder of the Institute, Dean Ralph Dennis.

NHSI's goal, as stated by Dean Dennis and as followed today is, "to bring together gifted young people and superior teachers in an atmosphere of affection, knowledge, and trust." In each of the 6 divisions, students gain practical college-level experience in their chosen field; interact closely with outstanding faculty; tackle new social and intellectual challenges; and experience campus life with other exceptional high school students. NHSI students leave the Institute better able to make decisions about their future and many go on to study at the finest colleges and universities.

SUMMER STUDY PROGRAMS

Educationally Exciting

Pre-College Summer Programs

For High School Students

On the Fabulous Campuses of:

Penn State University

The University of Colorado at Boulder

Summer Study in Paris

The Leader in Pre-College Enrichment, College Admissions Prep, SAT Prep, & Middle School Programs

Dear Pre-Collegians:

Attending a pre-college program anywhere is a wonderful summer experience. Attending a SUMMER STUDY program at Penn State University, The University of Colorado at Boulder, The University of Vermont or The Sorbonne in Paris, is A SUMMER LIKE NEVER BEFORE! It is a summer filled with challenging, yet fun classes for college credit or enrichment...a summer filled with new friends and independence...a summer filled with the finest sports and recreational facilities at Penn State, thrilling outdoor adventures in Colorado and Vermont or amazing cultural opportunities in Paris...a summer filled with fun daytime activities and exciting nightlife...a summer filled with weekend travel excursions to visit other colleges, other towns or other ways of life...a summer filled with experienced staff who truly care about the needs of each individual student...a summer filled with hundreds of students from all over the globe living together on a campus that is “alive” and full of spirit. It is a summer that has “something for everyone!”

Summer Study Programs offers high school and middle school students the rare opportunity to “taste” college life while still in an organized and supervised environment. This “head start” eases the transition from high school to college and allows for the successful development of essential time management and study skills, self confidence and independence. By spending 2, 3, 4, 5 or 6½ weeks in a Summer Study program, students find the thought of going off to college far less threatening and, as a result, are able to eliminate much of the pre-college anxiety. The security and confidence built prior to freshman year will prove invaluable to the success of your entire college career!

Academic programs are NOT all alike. Our mission is to offer all students “The Total Pre-Collegiate Experience.” To that end, our programs offer a wide variety of enrichment classes including The Kaplan SAT or ACT prep class, Speed Reading and other classes not generally offered in most high schools, daily sporting events and intensive sports clinics (tennis, golf, soccer, basketball & volleyball), exercise and workout areas, community service, dance, singing, rock band and crafts workshops, discussion groups, special events, evening activities and weekend trips.* Our ALL-INCLUSIVE concept means that everyone can participate and no one is left out!

We dedicate our year-long efforts to making sure each Summer Study program is the best experience imaginable and pledge to continue providing the highest quality and most well supervised pre-college programs...a trademark of Summer Study Programs. We thank you for your interest in Summer Study Programs and hope to see you on campus.

Sincerely,

SUMMER STUDY PROGRAMS

SUMMER STUDY PROGRAMS, INC. and our commitment to excellence, has received national acclaim on CNN News, USA TODAY and in THE NEW YORK TIMES.

California College of the Arts: Pre-College

Pre-College Program at CCA Turns 25!

Summer 2012 (four weeks): June 25–July 20

CCA's Pre-College Program, now in its 25th year, is an inspiring opportunity for high school students to study art or creative writing in an art-school setting while earning 3 units of college credit.

Immerse yourself in a college-level curriculum and become part of a creative community, meeting and working with other talented, serious students from diverse backgrounds.

While taking courses on CCA's beautiful and historic Oakland campus, you can explore the San Francisco Bay Area's rich culture and geography. Pre-College provides a perfect platform to expand your knowledge, grow as an individual, develop strong portfolio pieces, and get a taste of college life.

The Bay Area's combination of thriving urban centers and wild open spaces has long been a draw for creative individuals. There is an abundance of culture and history here:

- the commercial creative endeavors of Pixar and Lucasfilm
- the legacy of the 1950s Beat poetry scene
- world-renowned museums such as the de Young and the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art
- recent architectural projects by Renzo Piano, Daniel Libeskind, and Herzog & de Meuron

As a Pre-College student you will find much to inspire you in this unique environment.

Summer 2012 is the Pre-College Program's 25th year. Approximately 250 students attend each summer, many of them from around the country or from abroad; 160 reside in CCA housing.

NYU Precollege - Experience College this Summer

July 2 - August 10, 2012

NYU Precollege offers rising high school juniors and seniors the opportunity to experience academic and student life at New York University. Students take college level courses for academic credit which may be applied to a future degree. Residential and non-residential options are available.

Participants take their credit-bearing courses with college students. Additionally students have the opportunity to participate in a free college writing workshop taught by NYU's distinguished writing experts. The workshop offers students an opportunity to enhance writing skills and focus on college level writing. For more details about the writing workshop click here.

Outside the classroom, the Precollege program offers workshops regarding the college admissions and application process, as well as a variety of on- and off-campus social events and activities. NYU Precollege is a wonderful way for outstanding high school students to get a taste of college while still having time to work, volunteer, and enjoy the summer vacation.

Welcome to Summer Discovery 2012

Welcome to Summer Discovery, the world's finest and most popular summer high school, pre-college and study abroad programs. We are proud that, every summer, more high school students choose Summer Discovery than any other program of its kind.

Dear Students & Parents,

The Musiker Family has directed award-winning, well-supervised, summer enrichment programs for high school students for 46 years. Although we offer a wide variety of quality programs around the world, we are still a family-owned and operated organization featuring the most experienced and talented leadership in the pre-college field.

Our success, personal attention, experience and safety standards have been emulated, but never duplicated. Year after year, we receive positive word-of-mouth and recommendations from literally thousands of satisfied students, parents, teachers, guidance counselors and administrators.

Our unique partnerships with some of the world's most prestigious universities allow our students unparalleled access to summer college programs, study abroad experiences, high-

school internships, enrichment courses, community service, cultural immersion, sports and residential life. We invite you to join a wonderful group of teenagers from all over the USA and around the world this summer on campus. And as always, we look forward to personally meeting every one of our participants during the summer of 2012.
