

THE EMILY WINTERS LIPPS YOUNG WOMEN'S SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Selection Criteria

Emily Winters Lipps was a woman who greatly valued education. She placed such a high value on education that at the age of 65, Ms. Lipps decided to pursue a college degree. Ten years later in December 1999 at the age of 75, Ms. Lipps graduated from Indiana University. Through a neighbor who had sent their children to Roncalli High School, Emily was introduced to Roncalli and soon developed a deep love and appreciation for the education that was provided to students at Roncalli. She developed a strong interest in the well-being of young female students with a financial need who exhibited high academic potential with a motivation to succeed. In addition to a love of education, Ms. Lipps loved animals and music. She made all the provisions for this scholarship through a trust prior to her death on May 2, 2004.
